Admission: For the IMP-A, only dogs that fulfill the breeding requirements of their country of origin by the entry deadline will be admitted.

For the IMP-B, dogs will be admitted if no faults that exclude them from breeding have been identified by the entry deadline (national breeding approval is not a requirement).

A valid PET passport (international vaccination certificate) with a valid rabies vaccination must be presented for each dog.

Handlers:

Each handler must hold a valid, current national hunting license and carry it with them at the IMP. For foreign guests, firearms and ammunition for the field, forest, and water work will be provided by the organizer.

For handlers who do not hold a German hunting license, shooting will be carried out by an authorized person.

Game:

Handlers may bring their own dead game for the individual test subjects.

Handlers unable to bring their own dead game may obtain the game required for the test from the organizer at cost, provided they request it well in advance.

The live duck for the water work is provided exclusively by the organizer.

Meals: Meals for handlers and judges will be provided during the test.

Other: All handlers will receive a program with the current group assignments on the day of arrival. The official language is German.

The test regulations for the IMP (A and B) can be downloaded from the KIM-I website at www.klm-international.info (see "International Tests").

Donations: Financial and material donations are very welcome!
